

Searching for an Act or Regulation using Austlii

Austlii - Australasian Legal Information Institute

<http://www.austlii.edu.au>

1. Select either Commonwealth or Victoria, as required
2. Under the heading Vic Legislation select Consolidated Acts or Consolidated Regulations
3. If you know the name of the act select Select Alphabetical List
4. Click on the first letter of the Act/Regulation name
5. Select the appropriate Act
6. When your results are displayed, select the appropriate Act and use the numbered hypertext links to navigate your way around the Act/Regulation.

An alternative if the Act/Regulation name is known. Follow steps 1- 4 as above, then:

7. Act Name Search
8. Type the name of the Act/Regulation into the “Enter search query” box eg. Equal Opportunity Act and select “this legislation name” from the Find menu to the left.
9. Click on the search button

If you are unsure of the exact name of the Act but know keywords in the title choose “all these words” from the Find menu.

To find particular words in the text, you can use your browser’s Edit → Find (on This Page) function. This will highlight the next occurrence of your search terms.

To print:

If you are viewing a section of an Act, click on print and click on your browser’s print icon. Another option is to download the Act. Choosing download will make the Act ready to print. Note that the information contained on this website is subject is copyright. No part may be reproduced by any process except in accordance with the provisions of the Copyright Act 1968.

To download:

Click on download. Files can be downloaded in two formats – Rich text or Plain Text. Note the sections for each that explain the differences. Further information is provided by clicking on the link to download instructions. Once an Act is downloaded, click on File, then Print Preview to view the number of pages that will be printed for the complete Act. Click on Print, then Pages and enter the number of the page to be printed, or a range of pages eg. 3-6. Click on Print.